

The Gay Lesbian and Straight Education Network

Central New Jersey Chapter

Presents

Open House at

Kidsbridge Tolerance Museum

Forcina Hall at

The College of New Jersey

Directions and campus map at www.tcnj.edu

Park behind Forcina Hall- two level garage. Enter Forcina Hall from parking area and follow signs to Museum on 1st Floor.

Sunday, January 10, 2010

1:00 – 4:00 pm

A great opportunity for families, educators, and all who care about safe spaces in school for all students. Explore the exhibits in the tolerance museum, learn about GLSEN Central New Jersey and Kidsbridge, join in refreshments and conversation.

GLSEN Central New Jersey – a community organization where gay and straight people work together toward a day when every child learns respect and acceptance for all people regardless of sexual orientation and gender identity.

Kidsbridge Tolerance Museum @ The College of New Jersey – a haven of fun, thought-provoking, interactive exhibits where every child gets to learn about ending prejudice, valuing differences, and being an Up-stander instead of a bystander. www.kidsbridgemuseum.org.

RSVP and questions: cnj@njglsen.org or 609-448-8243

GLSEN Central New Jersey, P.O. Box 261, Hightstown, NJ 08520
www.glsen.org/centralnj